Each Subscriber set forth on Schedule D shall be entitled to a certain number of waivers of Article Processing Charges (“APC Waivers”), for articles of corresponding authors of that Subscriber accepted for publication in a publication that is included in Schedule F.

Ovid will provide the waiver codes for 2018 to the National Library promptly following the agreement by the Parties as to the APC waiver program for 2018, and thereafter annually 30 days before the start of the next subscription year. The National Library shall distribute the waiver codes to the Subscribers. Ovid will cause its affiliated publisher to offer the author the option of self-funding the APC or to publish the article via the traditional route as a subscription article (not open access).
